MUGHAL E AZAM : THE TIMELESS TALE WITNESSED BY RCMWE

Our club organized a spectacular outing to the iconic Mughal-E-Azam play at NMACC on 25th Jan. The event was attended by an impressive gathering of 217 members and spouses, making it one of the club's well-participated cultural activities. Members experienced the grandeur of the production, enjoying its powerful performances, music and timeless storytelling. The evening was made even more special with high tea and dinner which was arranged for all attendees. Overall, the event strengthened bonding among members while celebrating India's rich theatrical heritage.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

MEDICAL CAMP IN ASSOCIATION WITH INDIAN COAST GUARD

Our club organized a medical camp on 20th Jan at Versova fisherman's market , Andheri (W). This was organized in association with Indian coast guard and was supported by Sanjeevani Hospital and Rotaract Club of Medico Marvel West. More than 250 local koli community beneficiaries took advantage of the camp along with others. All essential needed medical tests were arranged. 50 FIRST AID MEDICAL KITS were donated courtesy Sanjeevani Hospital. Around 100 school bags were also distributed to the school children, sponsored by an anonymous donor from MWE Club. Koli dance and cultural events were also arranged.

INTERNATIONAL UPDATE

Rotary President-elect Yinka Babalola unveils Presidential Message for the 2026-27 Rotary year – “Create Lasting Impact”. He mentioned change and impact are not the same. “Change is only the beginning. Impact is what endures”.

Rotary members Rtn Ravishankar and Paola Dakoju have pledged $50M to The Rotary Foundation — one of the largest gifts in Rotary history — boosting humanitarian projects worldwide. They are members of the Rotary Club of Bangalore, Karnataka. Rtn Ravishankar Dakoju serves as The Rotary Foundation Arch Klumph Society ambassador for Asia.

A new Rotary Peace Center was inaugurated at Symbiosis, Pune. This is the eighth peace center and will expand opportunities for learning, leadership, and collaboration across Asia.

Thank You
